

Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago 2017 MEMBER DIRECTOR ELECTION

Elect Todd Grayson to the FHLB-Chicago Board!

CBAI is pleased to exclusively endorse Todd Grayson, president of South Central Bank, NA (Chicago), for election to the 2017 Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago Board of Directors.

2017 Member Director Election Candidate Profile

Todd E. Grayson

Todd Grayson is president of South Central Bank, N.A. in Chicago, a role he has held since 2014. South Central is a $275-million-asset, nationally chartered community bank with five locations on the near south and near west sides of Chicago. The bank was founded in 1965 by Grayson's grandfather, and has been primarily owned and consecutively managed by three generations of the Grayson family.

Since its inception, South Central Bank has been highly capitalized as defined by regulators. The bank serves many low-and moderate-income census tracts and has consistently earned favorable CRA ratings for serving its entire community. Recently, South Central was recognized as a 5-Star "Superior" financial institution by BauerFinancial, Inc., the nation's leading bank and credit union rating and research firm.

Todd holds an undergraduate degree in economics from Emory University in Atlanta, GA and a M.B.A. in finance from the University of Chicago. He is also a 1996 graduate of the National Commercial Lending School.

Todd currently serves on the board of directors of the Community Bankers Association of Illinois, and is a past Chairman (2014-2015). He has also served on the Independent Community Bankers of America's Regulation Review committee, the Illinois Mortgage Bankers Association's board, the Home Improvement Lenders Association's board and the National Fragile X Foundation's board of directors, as their Awareness Committee chairman.

In addition to several other community activities, Todd coached AYSO soccer for more than 10 years, starting a VIP Buddy Soccer Program for Special Needs Children and coaching it for four years.

Todd and his wife, Marcia, have two children.
